

AFTER DESPERATE BATTLE WITH FRIEND SAN LORENZO MAN CUTS HIS THROAT

CHARLES BRANIN CUTS HIS THROAT

Bloody Battle With a Friend—Mind Was Unhinged Through Drink.

Made temporarily in a very brief period of time, Charles Brannin, who is a carpenter in the county clerk's office, committed suicide early this morning in the presence of his mother, sister and brother, by cutting his throat from ear to ear with a razor in his bedroom at his residence in San Lorenzo.

In attempting to prevent the respondent from taking his life, his mother, who is much interested in the case, and his sister, who is a nurse, were both on the floor and tried to restrain him.

A sad feature of the unfortunate affair is the fact that only three weeks ago Brannin became the father of a baby girl, and his wife is yet in a weak condition. It is feared that the shock occasioned by the husband's suicide may have serious results.

Both the mother and wife, the latter being a nurse, are watching over the child to prevent another possible tragedy.

About 10 o'clock last night Brannin, who is about twenty-five years of age, went into his stable in the rear of his home and hitched up his horse in a buggy and drove to the residence of Lorenzo Shimman, 10 Mr. Shimman, the respondent, had a relative who was a doctor, and he was at the house at the time.

Brannin, who is a carpenter, was a man of about 30 years of age, and was a native of California.

The latter, however, was familiar with the young man's trouble, so he refused to see him, and he was left alone, and then a couple of days later.

Manuel Hernandez, a native of Portugal, aged 50 years, died yesterday at Bates' quarry in Pleasant Valley. He was unmarried.

Mrs. William J. Poole, wife of the local manager of a large bicycle firm, had three of her ribs crushed by a horse yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Poole and her husband were riding in an automobile on the San Leandro road. As they neared the Sastro Park Hotel, a horse coming towards them became frightened a part of the machine. Before the inmates of the auto realized their danger, the animal leaped into the machine's iron shed hoofs crushing into Mrs. Poole, crushing her ribs and otherwise injuring her.

Mrs. Poole was carried into the hotel where Dr. A. S. Larkley was called to attend her. She was removed to her home, 501 Alameda street. Although it is not thought she is fatally hurt, the full extent of her injuries has not yet been ascertained.

The horse which injured the lady was being driven by Peter Jolcz.

Line to Walnut

In line with this development the big Fish ranch has been purchased and a new suburb to San Francisco will be laid out.

When the road to Walnut Creek will be finished is not known, but the promoters expect that with good and swift service a desirable portion of the county will be opened up as a suburb for San Francisco.

WILL NOT FIGHT

Kuropatkin Said to Be Ready to Run
Again.

ST. PETERSBURG, October 3.—S. S. St. m.—Emperor Nicholas returned to St. Petersburg to-day from the south and the Associated Press hears on very high authority that the appointment of a commander-in-chief will be announced within forty-eight hours.

While General Kuropatkin's friends still insist that he will be appointed, members of the Emperor's entourage express no doubt that Grand Duke Nicholas Nikolaievitch will be chosen.

The official advice from the front to-day report that all is quiet along the whole line of the opposing armies.

A slight Japanese movement has been observed at Feng Tai Pu, about sixteen miles southeast of Mukden, but there has been no collision.

The War Office apparently does not anticipate any fighting on a large scale in the immediate future.

The principal cause of alarm at the War Office is occasioned by the lack of definite information regarding the exact whereabouts of Field Marshal Oyama's right.

The Russian scouts have lost touch with General Kuropatkin's main army which may give increasing importance to the flanking movement. General Kuropatkin, who has been regarded as a feint for the real turning movement to strike at General Kuropatkin's line of communication from the east.

It is also very certain the possibilities of a big surprise. Ten days ago Kuropatkin and the War Office were convinced that the Japanese were concentrating at Manchuria and that an immediate advance was imminent in force. Accordingly the Russians fell back from the passes of the Da mountains ranges without offering resistance.

Kuropatkin's plans are carefully guarded. While he is disposing his forces to take advantage of any situation that may offer the best opinion is that he will not accept a general engagement, but will withdraw to the East where the bulk of his army is massed.

HIGH IS NAMED

Will Succeed Col. Beck as Manager of Bank.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 3.—It was rumored some weeks ago that William H. High, one of the Bank Commissioners, had been endorsed the position of manager of the International Bank Corporation of this city, vice Colonel F. E. Beck, resigned.

The rumor was well founded and Mr. High has had the matter under consideration ever since and has been in negotiation with the head office in New York. It is presumed that the conference has terminated satisfactorily, as the announcement of his appointment to the position has just come to hand from New York.

Mr. High is absent from the city in the performance of his official duties. He is serving as a Bank Commissioner under a four-year term, for which he was appointed by Governor Pardee on June 20, 1903. So far as is known, he has not resigned from that office, but as the new position is considered a more lucrative one and likely to be more permanent, his action in the matter can be easily surmised.

HEIRS ANSWER WILL CONTEST

Joseph McIlwaine's contest of the will of his late mother, Margaret Elizabeth Flottin Jellert McIlwaine, provoked this morning the filing by the heirs of an answer to his contest.

Mrs. McIlwaine left an estate valued at about $80,000 to her husband and children, her son, Archer J. Jellert, being named as executor.

The executor was to supply Joseph McIlwaine with needed funds for expenses, but the young man declared that Jellert could not even advance money sufficient to purchase clothes in which he could attend his mother's funeral.

Other features of the affair were not to Joseph McIlwaine's taste and he prepared to contest the will, alleging that his mother was not of "sound and disposing mind" when she made her will, that the father, Joseph McIlwaine, Sr., unduly influenced the young mother in cutting off the young McIlwaine, that she sustained a shock many years ago which so affected her mental faculties that she could not be considered sound mentally when she made the will. The heirs, who are Sara, Elizabeth, Martha and Maria McIlwaine, deny all their brother's assertions and pray that the will of their mother be admitted to probate.

Japanese Tried Hard to Capture Port Arthur.

CHE FOO, October 3, 3:50 p. m.—A private letter received today from Port Arthur, dated September 28, gives further details of the fighting from September 19 to September 22. The attack began with a heavy bombardment directed against nearly all the Russian outposts and many of the main forts. The shelling of the redoubts protecting the water supply of Port Arthur was tremendous. Nightfall September 19 found the waterworks redoubts reduced to mere heaps of debris. The garrisons of the redoubts thereupon retreated safely to the main fortifications under the cover of darkness.

At four o'clock the same afternoon, the Japanese assault on "High Hill" began. The Japanese plan of attack never varied. First a heavy bombardment and then an assault and when repulsed a bombardment again and then another assault.

The desperate determination of the Japanese to capture this position amounted to fanaticism, their efforts never ceasing during four days. One battalion of Japanese having retreated into a valley, were exposed to the Russian sharpshooters and were almost annihilated. Eventually the Japanese succeeded in placing one field gun and two machine guns in position behind hastily made barriers. Their tenure of the position owing to the fact that the inner forts, which were very insecure, and when Lieutenant Pogorsky and the volunteers charged the tide turned against them. One battalion of Japanese was driven into the Russian entanglements, where Captain Sytsch's force was waiting and completed its rout. Two other attempts made by the Japanese to recapture the position failed.

Absolutely pure.
Perfectly ozonated.
Not Distilled—
But Electrified.

Pronounced by Local Physicians and Chemists to be Inestimably superior to distilled water.

DISTILLED water is pure water which tastes like medicine. Electro Water is pure water which has a delightful sweet taste—as though it came cool, fresh and sparkling from some mountain spring.

Electro Water is regular old Contra Costa water treated with electricity so that its every disease germ is killed and filtered out. The method of treatment is new, but tested and proven by the testimony of local physicians and chemist experts.

Electro Water is absolutely free of nitrogenous and animal matter. It contains no corrosives or bacteria. It is pure, sweet water.
It is soft on the tongue—all of the salts of lime, sodium and magnesium being absent.

Electro Water is ozonated—it is purified and impregnated with life-giving ozone just as the vitiated atmosphere is purified and revitalized by lightning.

Electro Water is used in many of the great hospitals and sanitariums, and is furnished in many cities to the schools and other public institutions.

Our plan is just completed and we are now taking orders. Our price for Electro Water is lower than the price for ordinary distilled water.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.

In every meat market, butcher shop and slaughter house in San Francisco to-day the following card is displayed:

"This is an open shop. By order of the San Francisco Butchers' Board of Trade, Indorsed by the Citizens' Alliance."

The decision to disregard the Journeymen Butchers' Union and to inaugurate the open shop was reached yesterday afternoon at a meeting of employes' butchers, held in Egan Hall, San Francisco, attended by fully 300 butchers, wholesalers, retail dealers, jobbers and dealers in the city. The butchers' board of trade, which was organized by the Journeymen Butchers' Union, and which had been in existence for some time, voted on the question of the open shop and was unanimous. Those who have not as yet signed the agreement to keep the open shop, though they are said to be but few, will be given an opportunity to sign today or take the consequences of standing out alone.

The Butchers' Board of Trade and the Western Meat Company are represented at the meeting. Herman Schreiber presided and John H. Lumsy officiated as secretary.

It is stated that there is no intention to interfere with the inner workings of the union, nor will union men be discharged or asked out on account of their affiliation unless the union should order its members out of a shop, then the union would compete with the butcher in order union men discharged.

It was adopted as a resolution that no butcher should be allowed to keep the advantage of another in regard to opening or closing hours or in diverting trade from a competitor by any means, and that any member suffering loss of business through boycott or other act of the union would be reimbursed by the exchange for his loss.

Our Farce-Comedy at St. Louis

The wrangles in the California Commission to the St. Louis Exposition have marred and hampered the plan to advertise the State and its resources to an extent that can hardly be appreciated. We had the same experience at Paris. In both cases the wretched quarrels and recriminations can be traced to the same causes—sectional rivalry and personal jealousy. The Los Angeles district wants the best of everything and is determined to get it by hook or crook, quite regardless of means and the rights of others. At St. Louis, the representative from the Southern end of the State is a pushing, resourceful, wide-awake chap, who holds that the duty imposed by his commission ends at Tehachapi Pass—that the rest of California is a foreign country that is to be bested if possible. Naturally harmony in the commission with such a man as a member is an utter impossibility. Then feminine snarls too: a sectional turn, and to make matters worse, the Superintendent of the State Mining Bureau decided to cut a wider swathe than met the approval of the Commission. He wanted $10 a day for his expenses while the Commission thought he ought to get along on $5 a day. He came home in a huff, and the Secretary of the Commission resigned in a rage because he could not get along with the Los Angeles end of the Commission. It is a very pretty row all round, with some ludicrous phases and aspects, but it is a shame and an injury to the State. Public money has been expended to poor advantage if not wasted altogether by a series of squabbles whose echoes have given the people at home a tired feeling and a sense of indignant disgust. California should send no more triple or double head commissions to fairs. Two Commissioners quarrel. Wives of two Commissioners quarrel still more. The Secretary invariably regards one Commissioner as being superior to the others—a fine example of too many cooks spoiling the broth. There should be just one Commissioner—one boss—and he should have just one wife and one State to advertise—not two. That is the long and the short of the whole business. Three Commissioners mean soft snaps for one or two and extra hard work for the other; also confusion, wrangling and bedchamber contention. In future the State's exhibit at foreign fairs should be placed under the exclusive management of one man.

The last prizefight between "champions" was declared a draw. So the fighters say: their faces are divided the gate money. As a well-bitten public suspiciously refused to bet on the scrap this was the natural outcome. Another match will draw a bigger crowd and perhaps get people to betting.

The Democratic party is great on "issues." It has now convicted Hon. Duncan McKinlay of two high crimes and misdemeanors upon which they demand his defeat for Congress and expulsion from the company of honorable men. Mr. McKinlay is charged with having been born in Canada and with having once registered in San Francisco. Mr. McKinlay unblushingly admits both offenses, and the Democratic editors are now shrieking their horror and indignation at the black turpitude of the man. As before stated, the Democratic press is great on "issues." It is also funnier that a box full of monkeys.

General Prosperity has command in the business world and General Apathy is in control at Democratic headquarters. A calamity campaign cannot be waged in a period of good times.

An unusual accident resulting in the death and injury of several persons, in San Francisco, directs attention to the dangerous overcrowding of street-cars. This particular car had more than twice as many passengers as it was built to accommodate. They packed every available inch of standing room and hung on two or three deep outside. Coming down a sharp grade the brake refused to work, and when the motorman finally succeeded in throwing it on, the suddenness of the shock hurled fourteen persons from the car. One had the life crushed out of him by being thrown against a car coming the other way. Primarily, the tragedy is due to crowding cars far beyond the limit of either safety or comfort. At present there are no laws or ordinances to prevent overcrowding, which is not only a menace to life and limb but is an imposition on passengers, who get to cars in time to be seated. People in seats are crowded, jostled, suffocated and have their toes trodden on in a subsequent rush. As long as a person can hold on by the eye-lids the car stops for passengers, consequently, on fete days or when there is a circus in town riding on the cars is accompanied by hideous discomfort. Every fair Sunday the cars running to Golden Gate Park, in San Francisco, furnish examples of overcrowding to an appalling degree. And the evil appears to be on the increase. It is profitable to the street railway companies and it is not forbidden by law. Such things always will be so long as society does not regulate them and compel public service corporations to recognize the fact that the public has some rights that must be observed. The law should step in and limit the number of passengers allowed on a car. This would insure some comfort to passengers and lessen the danger of accident.

The planters in Georgia are so busy they are picking cotton by moonlight, and cotton is so high that women are wearing wads in stead of calico and muslin. Yet the South wants a change of administration. Have the Southerners forgotten the days of five-cent cotton and universal bankruptcy?

Putting iron in life-preservers to make them heavier is the very irony of graft. It is what a Philadelphia firm has been caught doing. Lightness is the essential in life-preservers, but to insure the necessary bulk, the Government requires that the cork-packing shall weigh not less than six pounds. The firm in question put up blocks short in size and weight, but brought the weight up to the legal standard by inserting in each block an iron bar weighing eight ounces—iron being worth about one per cent of the value of ground cork. Here is a life-preserver indeed. It was not made to float but for profit. It was a murderous fraud devised to cheat the trade, cheat the law and cheat the hopes of any unfortunate who might be compelled to trust in their buoyancy. The men who made those life-preservers are probably rich and respected, regular attendants at church and members of societies which make honor, truth, justice, benevolence and fraternity their guiding principles, yet they are indifferent as to how many may drown so long as they can reap a dishonest gain. They are no worse, however, than a druggist who sells spurious compounds to sick rooms or tradesmen who sell diseased meat, medicated milk and other articles under false pretenses.

Evidently the Oakland baseball team have no mind to be called "double-enders," whatever else they may be called.

The wages of all classes of workmen in the Carnegie Steel Works, now owned by the Steel Trust, have been reduced, but there has been no reduction in the price of steel. The price of steel rails is still $28 per ton to the American consumer, though wages and the cost of pig iron are both lower than one year ago. And while the trust is charging American railroads $28 for rails, it is shipping the same rails to Europe and selling them at $11 delivered or $17 per ton at the mill. This is the sort of business that enrages the people and creates such a bitter antagonism to monopolistic combinations.

The Campaign for Pure Milk

Dairy sanitation is engaging the thoughtful attention of municipal authorities because many forms of contagious diseases are directly traceable to the dairy. Milk is a universal article of diet and at the same time is a peculiarly sensitive absorbent of poisonous elements. It is so easily contaminated and adulterated, and the effects of contamination and adulteration are so injuriously wide-spread, that sanitary experts are a unit in demanding clean dairies and pure milk—the one is dependent upon the other. Infant mortality in particular is largely due to the impure milk that comes from dirty dairies.

Clean dairies and pure milk can only be secured by intelligent regulation and rigid supervision. Without this, the dairyman who keeps healthy cows, clean premises and adopts the necessary precautions against milk contamination is placed at a disadvantage in competing with men who seek profit regardless of the health of their customers. Consequently regulation and inspection are as necessary for the protection of the honest dairyman as for the protection of the public. The present system offers a premium to recklessness and dishonesty, and operates as a discouragement to men who deal honestly with patrons by serving them with clean, pure milk.

This class of dairymen—constituting the great majority, by the way—desire the enactment of a State law which will compel unsanitary dairymen to clean up or go out of business. They want a commission created that will be vested with the power to inspect all dairies and to enforce whatever regulations that may be necessary for the preservation of health in dairy cows and the purity of dairy products put upon the market. In this matter the clean dairymen are making a fight in behalf of the public. It is a fight for pure milk, a fight against filth and disease.

The stockraisers also want laws enacted that will prevent the spread of contagious disease among cattle, and will inaugurate conditions that will improve the grade of stock. Their aim is to encourage the breeding of high grade stock by preventing the breeding of sickly cattle amid unsanitary surroundings. In common with the dairymen, they want a commission created with power to act. One commission would serve the purpose of both the cattle raisers and the dairymen. Such a commission should be composed of practical men possessing a thorough knowledge of the dairy and cattle business. One rightly constituted and properly empowered would be capable of performing a great service to the public. At the same time it would confer a substantial benefit on the dairy and stock interests of the State.

NO BOND ISSUE FOR SUSPECTED "JOBS."

On Tuesday a bond election was held at Oakland, at which eleven projects, aggregating an expenditure for municipal improvements of $2,492,000, were submitted to the people. The proposed expenditures were for the purchase of land for park purposes and the building of boulevards, sewers, Polytechnic High School, Library and new City Hall. Without an exception the several propositions were rejected by a vote so positive as to leave no doubt of the mood of the people of Oakland; they do not approve the issuing of bonds at this time.

But up to a fortnight ago the proposed bond issue was the most popular question before the Oakland public. Had the election been held then the several propositions would have carried overwhelmingly. Opposition to them was started when it was charged in the public prints that land for which it was proposed to pay $300,000 for park purposes was, as a matter of fact, worth less than $50,000. The Union knows nothing of the merits of the contention; the land for aught we know may be worth six times $300,000 or less than one-sixth that amount, as was charged. But this is certain, the charges created opposition to the park proposition, the people got it into their heads that all was not above board, and at the polls not only defeated the bonds intended for the purchase of the park, but the ten other projects as well, apparently reasoning that if there were a "job" in one project the probabilities were good for a "job" in each of the others. The incident shows that while the people are willing to vote bonds for improvements, they want to feel sure that the funds which they thus provide will be honestly expended. The mere suspicion of a "job" is enough, as was shown at Oakland, to set them hard against voting money for the most necessary work. — Sacramento Union.

The Oakland Tribune makes an important proposal to the people of Oakland. It admits that the "Sather Tract," rejected at the recent bond election, is an admirable park site, and recites that it was purchased last year for the sum of $215,000. It now offers to furnish a petition to the city council, without which the proposition cannot be resubmitted within a year, for another election to issue bonds for its purchase, provided the owners will agree to sell it for what they paid—the entire tract and not a part of it, and eliminating the tram line projected through it on high trestles. This throws a sort of side-light on the recent election controversy.—Alameda Argus.

DREAD OF HUMANITY

I am compelled by a sense of gratitude to tell you the great good your remedy has done me in case of Contagious Blood Poison. Among other symptoms I was severely afflicted with Rheumatism, and got almost past going. The disease got a firm hold upon my system; my blood was thoroughly poisoned with the virus. I lost weight, was run down, had sore throat, eruptions, spots and other evidences of the disease. I was truly in a bad shape when I began the use of S. S. S., and the persistent use of it brought me out of my trouble safe and sound, and I have the courage to publicly testify to the virtues of your great blood remedy, S. S. S., and to recommend it to all blood-poison sufferers, sincerely believing it is taken according to directions, and given a fair trial, it will thoroughly eliminate every particle of the virus. JAMES CURRAN, Stark Hotel, Greensboro, Pa.

Painful swellings in the groins, red eruptions upon the skin, sores in the mouth and loss of hair and eyebrows, are some of the symptoms of this vile disease. S. S. S. is an antidote for the awful virus that attacks and destroys even the bones. S. S. S. contains no Mercury, Potash or other mineral ingredient. We offer $1,000 for proof that it is not absolutely vegetable. Home treatment giving the symptoms and other interesting and valuable information about this disease, mailed free. ## SIDETRACKED AT MACDONOUGH.

"HAMLET" WILL BE SEEN AT YE LIBERTY. PLAYHOUSE.

There's a new tramp in town, and he is a fine fellow. He is Horatio Xerxes Booth, an independent representative to the American Congress of Triamphology, and his mission in Oakland for this week at the Macdonough is to make people laugh and incidentally to make money at the spot when the villain means to do good people harm. He arrived yesterday and his reception was most cordial. This same tramp in real life is John Walters—clear John Walters as he is known. Since coast to coast his work is splendid in addition to which his company could not possibly be improved, thus making the presentation of "Sidetracked" the best ever witnessed in Oakland. Mr. Walters is ably seconded by Louise, Lewellyn, whose acting is fine and whose handsome gowns are greatly admired. Adelaide Walters makes a charming sourette. James Montgomery causes everyone to hate him for his splendid work as the villainous railroad superintendent. Ainsworth Arnold is a good actor and John and Marion James are good character people. David Clifford, the father, is acceptable. "Sidetracked" is all that has been said of it and much more. The play is good. It tells an interesting story and the comedy is of the best. The specialties are new and up-to-date. Miss Lewellyn wears some excellent gowns during the action of the play and in the third act, "She's cheap at $1500, not including herself by a long shot," as remarked Tramp Walters after the performance. "Sidetracked" will be presented at the Macdonough tonight and every night this week with matinee next Saturday and next Sunday and the prices are to remain the same all week, 1, 2, 3, 50c, 20c and 10c.

"THE WIZARD OF OZ." "The Wizard of Oz" is probably the greatest hit of the day and the theater is literally crowded to the doors at every performance of this most diverting extravaganza. It will play at the Macdonough till Monday.

"HAMLET" AT LIBERTY. The opening production of "Hamlet," which is said to be the most popular of Shakespeare's tragedies, will be given at the Liberty Playhouse tonight. The scenery has been secured for this play, which, together with the magnificent costumes, will far surpass that of any other play that has been given at this popular theater. All the characters have been well distributed among the members of the Liberty stock company. Landers Stevens takes the part of Hamlet, Miss Kelson, Ophelia, William L. Mason, Polonius, Mr. C. Gleason plays the Queen, Robert Elliot, Laertes and Robert Lawler, Horatio. The other members of the company have all been given good parts.

Hints for the Ladies.

In mesh veils the shaded effect is new.

An odd pepper shaker is in the shape of a small red tomato. A hole at the bottom is used for filling and perforations are in the top.

Fans decorated in green have gold and green sticks and are made to carry with green costume. These fans are small and very dainty and come in other colors to match gowns.

The woman who wears will find a little hot-water heater convenient. These small conveniences are made to fit the gas jet and are accompanied by a small cup that fits the ring, which is fastened in the jet.

Even in leather goods, tan, russet and "buff" brown shades are leading; and lovely dressing cases, handbags, purses, cardcases and belts are shown in tan and russet, mounted with silver or nickel and lined with the same shade in kid or heavy silk moiré.

In soft yellow is a new fadence or earthenware, which is to be had in a variety of shapes. The decorations are mostly ice scenes with brightly garbed children about—sledding or skating. The dull blues and reds used in the coloring show beautifully on the delicate yellow of the ware.

Pompadour printings are found among the loveliest of the evening silks.

For invalids are deep easy wicker chairs with heads and curtains of cottons to shield the glare of sunlight or to keep drafts away.

Latest among the pillow offerings are those made of ribbon on which is printed St. Louis Exposition views. This ribbon is to be purchased by the yard.

One of the prettiest work stands for children's use is French ware of a pretty pale pink decorated with cupids, another in pale blue was decorated with white hills.

One of the newest and best things out is an adjustable toilet stand and mirror which is so constructed as to be easily raised or lowered to permit of use sitting down or standing at any height from thirty-six to seventy-two inches. For shaving it is ideal. The mirror is of the French plate and can be placed at any angle. The stand is light and can be moved without any part of the room. These stands cost from $5 to $8 each, according to finish and design.

NEW BATTLESHIP CLOSELY GUARDED

NEW YORK, October 3.—There is little danger that any further attempt will be made from the outside to injure the battleship Connecticut, which has just been launched at the navy yard in Brooklyn after attempts to damage her had been frustrated. Two marines with rifles patrol the land side of the boat, while on the boat itself are stationed guards with instructions to shoot if necessary. Electric lights at night are on the outside and the interior of the boat and there is no relaxation of vigilance. It would be impossible for an attack to be made on the water side of the boat. Besides the guards on the Connecticut, the deck watch on the Texas, Kearsarge and the receiving ship Hancock, have a full view of the approach by the water. In addition to these precautions a navy tug loaded with marines, with instructions to shoot straight at any unauthorized persons

IMMORALITY IN COLLEGES HIS THEME

ANN ARBOR, Mich., October 3.—Over 300 students gathered in University Hall to hear President Angell's annual address to the new arrivals. He took up the question of immorality in universities.

"Compare 3000 students with 3000 young men outside of college," said President Angell, "and you will find that the colleges are fully up to the moral standard of their non-college brethren. As for Michigan, she sends out more foreign missionaries than any other institution in the country. As a whole, the aims and purposes of the students are upright and noble, and not occasionally they indulge in foolish or wasteful reports of which are spread broadcast about the country, giving a wrong impression of American student life. The thing that I want to leave with the young men today is that the reputation of the University of Michigan lies in our hands, and that you should see to it that your conduct does not reflect upon its good name."

Not a Sick Day Since.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which did me any good. One day I saw an ad of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. ## Extraordinary Sale of BEAUTIFUL EMBROIDERIES Opens Tomorrow (Tuesday) 9 A.M.

This special sale consists of 20,000 yards of new embroideries, worth from 15c to $1.50 yard, marked to sell at

8c to 64c the yard

These magnificent embroideries were bought by our buyer, when in New York, six weeks ago. The manufacturer—one of the best-known makers of embroideries in the country—was shifting his plant and his selling office and was therefore in the humor to do most anything to get rid of his stock.

Nor is it a limited selection; there are hundreds of beautiful patterns, entirely new, in narrow, medium and broad widths, from the tiniest embroideries for the infant's christening trousseau to the more solid, showy trimmings for finest underwear and evening dresses.

Prices are 8c, 12c, 15c, 18c, 22c, 27c, 33c, 38c, 49c and 64c; actual worth from 15c to $1.50.

Choose from the windows if you please there's no reserve to this sale; each piece offers an opportunity to save half its value.

Careful, shrewd shoppers will not put off buying, for such an opportunity comes very rarely—and when it does, it's too good to last long.

WILL ENLARGE THE MOLE

KEY ROUTE WANTS MORE ROOM FOR ITS CARS.

The Key Route mole, which has been found very inadequate for the accommodation of the numerous cars of the company, is to be enlarged and additional tracks will be put on as soon as the mole is completed.

Along the pier, for which purpose the Realty Syndicate, which is largely interested in this system, will furnish the stone.

The road of the Webster Street and Park Railway, which has been absorbed by the Oakland Transit Company, hereafter to be known as the Key Route Transit Company, is being rushed to a conclusion as, in order to save the franchise, it must be in operation by the end of October.

The new road will be converted into a feeder for the ferry system in which the Transit Company is much interested.

Transfers from the new road are to be issued to the Key Route cars at Fourteenth and Broadway.

SHERIFF BISHOP INTERVENES.

It took the services of Sheriff John N. Bishop and Deputy Sheriff McMillan yesterday to quell the argument between William Scott and John Dillon at Fifty-seventh and Broadway streets. Ordinary words had failed to convey the meaning intended by the two disputants and fists were resorted to. The Sheriff and his assistants here intervened and took the two fighters to the City Prison. Their cases were submitted to Acting Police Judge Geary with the result that Dillon will have to stand trial for battery. Scott's appeal was merely defending his person from the assaults of Dillon.

JEWELRY THIEF CONFESSES GUILT.

According to information in the possession of Chief of Police Hodgkins, Charles Meyers, who was captured by Sheriff Mansfield a few days ago in San Mateo county, has confessed to the robbery of the store of M. V. Castro at 900 1/2 East Fourteenth street, on September 10th. The store, which carried a small stock of jewelry, was denuded of every thing of value except the show cases. The loss was less than $200. In all probability Meyers will be brought back here for trial.

They are having a delightful trip in every way.

COUNTY BOARD VICTORS.

Mines Road is Declared to Be Legal in All Respects.

Judge Ogden settled the fate of the injunction proceedings instituted by Harry N. Morse to block the construction of the Mines road by sustaining the District Attorney's demurrer to the injunction.

Deputy District Attorney W. T. Harby, assisted by Attorneys Snook and Church, contended that sufficient cause had not been shown by Morse for the issuance of a permanent injunction and the court sustained the demurrer.

Judge Ogden, in deciding the case, declared that the injunction was a collateral attack and not a proper proceeding.

A writ of certiorari was the proper proceeding to use in this matter to obtain the order sought by the plaintiff, said Judge Ogden, and this has been done, and the matter decided against the plaintiff. The demurrer to the injunction is sustained.

The Board of Supervisors awarded the contract for the construction of the Mines road to W. G. Schmidt of Berkeley at a regular session a month ago.

Harry N. Morse, a former sheriff, now a candidate for Supervisor against Supervisor H. D. Howe, proceeded at once to contest the award, declaring that the road to be built was for the benefit of private persons, namely, a corporation operating mines at the red rock terraces, and not for the public benefit.

Judge Ogden held, in passing upon a writ of review which Morse had secured, that these allegations had not been sustained by evidence introduced at the hearing.

The Board of Supervisors heard the news of Judge Ogden's ruling while in the building and received the decision with satisfaction. The decision is taken to mean that the Mines road will be built and that the construction of the road and the awarding of the contract.

AMBASSADOR TO HAVE VACATION.

ST. PETERSBURG, October 3. 12:40 p. m.—Ambassador McCormick has been granted leave of absence to go to the United States on urgent private business. He leaves here Thursday and will stop in Berlin to consult the Japanese minister there regarding the repatriation of the Japanese refugees. Mr. McCormick will sail from Cherbourg on the third of the vessel, and will be away from his post for six weeks. The diplomatic situation is not upon a quiet stage and there are no important questions likely to arise during Mr. McCormick's absence. Secretary Spencer today will act as charge d'affaires.

WILL CANVASS THE BOND VOTE

The City Council will hold a meeting this evening and canvass the returns of the election which was held last Tuesday. There is some discussion as to whether the sewer bonds, amounting to $121,000, passed or not. Some people claim that the bonds must have two-thirds of the votes cast, not including the illegal votes. The general opinion is, however, that the bonds, in order to carry, must have two-thirds of all the votes cast at the election.

COLONEL MARSH IS DEAD.

BRAVE SOLDIER PASSES AWAY AT EAST OAKLAND HOME.

Colonel C. Carrel Marsh, one of the bravest and most distinguished veterans and officers of the Civil War, died suddenly yesterday morning at his late residence, 1812 Ninth avenue, of a stroke of apoplexy.

The Colonel had been in the best of health when he was suddenly seized with apoplexy and died early the next morning.

Colonel Marsh was born in Oswego, N. Y., in 1829. At an early age he emigrated with his parents to Illinois, where he received a good education and established himself as a lawyer.

At the outbreak of the war he enlisted at Springfield in the Twentieth Illinois Regiment, in which he soon rose to the rank of Colonel. His regiment was soon ordered to the front and took part in the campaign in Northern Missouri for the preservation of that State for the Union. At Shiloh he rendered distinguished services, being in command of the second brigade of McClellan's division, under General Grant.

His command suffered severely during that battle, losing 555 men, and for a time bearing the brunt of the attack conducted on that occasion by his gallant General Grant. Later he took part in the campaign against Vicksburg, in command of a brigade, and did good service in the siege of the stronghold, which finally fell to the Union.

He continued in the army until the close of the war when he again took up the practice of law. A few years afterward he emigrated to California. For a short time he resided in Santa Barbara, and then moved to Oakland, where he has lived ever since. He was a frequent visitor to do so, Colonel Marsh never urged to apply for a pension, saying that he had fought voluntarily for the preservation of the Union and wished no reward for doing so. He was mentioned several times in General Grant's report.

Colonel Marsh is survived by a wife, Mrs. Harriet Cooley Marsh, and three daughters, Mrs. C. J. Mattison of Oswego, Mrs. J. C. Eason of Boulevard avenue and Miss M. L. Marsh.

Twice refused to take peerage.

TWICE REFUSED TO TAKE PEERAGE.

LONDON, October 3.—The St. James Gazette says it is understood that the late William Vernon Harcourt, who twice refused a peerage, eventually accepted the honor and would have been gazetted Baron Malwood on the next birthday list. "But," the paper adds, "he rendered the event impossible, but it is deemed probable that a baronetcy following the procedure on the death of W. H. Smith, who was Minister of War in Lord Salisbury's cabinets of 1885 and 1886, will nevertheless be conferred on Lady Harcourt."

KILLED HIMSELF IN PORTLAND.

PORTLAND, Ore., October 3.—Because he was jealous of a rival's growing business, Adrian Caudron, a gunsmith and cutter, aged 77 years, shot and fatally wounded himself at his place of business, Washington street, near Sixth today, and then blew out his own brains.

INTERESTING FACTS.

For Nearly Every Man, Woman or Child.

A short time ago we published an article recommending to our readers the new discovery for the cure of Dyspepsia, called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and the claims that it made regarding the wonderful curative properties of the remedy have been abundantly sustained by the facts. People who were doubtful about trying new remedies advertised in the newspapers and who finally decided to give Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets a trial were surprised and delighted at the results. In many cases a single package costing but 50 cents at any drug store made a complete cure and in every instance the most beneficial results were reported. From a hundred or more received we have space to publish only a few of the latest, but assure our readers we receive so many commendatory letters that we shall publish each week a list of genuine, unsolicited testimonials and never repeat the same twice.

From James Yarnall, Esq., La Crosse, Wisconsin: Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are doing me more good than anything I ever tried and I was so pleased at results that I gave away several boxes to my friends who have also had the same good results.

From Jacob Anthony v. Portmurray, New Jersey: I have taken Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets with the best results. I have dyspepsia for six years and had taken a great deal of medicine, but the Tablets seem to take right a hold and I feel good. I am a farmer and have a large family and I recommend to every one who has any trouble with his stomach to use these Tablets.

From Mrs. M. K. West, Preston, Minnesota: I have received surprisingly good effect from using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I have one-half of my last box to a friend who also suffered from indigestion and is having the same good results.

From Mrs. Agnes K. Euston, Cadillac, Michigan: I have been taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and I am very much better, and feel very grateful for the great benefit I have received in so short a time.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a certain cure for all forms of indigestion. They are claimed to be a cure-all, but are prepared for stomach troubles only and physicians and druggists everywhere recommend them to all persons suffering from Nervous Dyspepsia, sour stomach, flatulency, heartburn, bloating or wind on stomach and similar disorders.

DOMINICK FARPEY PASSES AWAY.

HE WAS WELL KNOWN ON THE COAST AS A MINING MAN.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 3.—Dominick P. Farpey, one of the most widely known mining assayers on the Pacific Coast, and one who was everywhere held in the highest esteem for his geniality and upright character, passed away about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his late residence, 1738 Bush street, this city. He died, it is learned, of a heart disease, from which he has been a sufferer for the past six months, was the cause of death. He was a brother of M. F. Farpey.

Until two weeks ago, Mr. Farpey had been attending to his assaying affairs in Bear River Valley, Utah, despite the frequent attacks of heart trouble with which he suffered. At that time, at the earnest solicitation of his family, he returned to his home, where the serious nature of his illness asserted itself.

Mr. Farpey was 54 years old. He came to the United States from Ireland, where he was born, when he was five or six years old, a living in California in 1850.

For twenty years, and until about five years ago, he was the land agent of the Southern Pacific Company in Utah and Nevada. In 1899 he engaged in mining and ranching ventures of his own, his principal property holdings being in the Bear River Valley district, Utah. He was also interested in property in the San Joaquin valley.

He was a member of the Lodge of Elks of Salt Lake City.

In his early manhood, Mr. Farpey engaged in mining in and about Virginia City and later a Angel's Camp in this State.

Deceased leaves a widow, four sons and two daughters.

John V. Farpey, the eldest son, is the manager of the Utah ranch; David D. Farpey is engaged in mining; Paul D. Farpey is a well-known young newspaper man of this city and Hugh, the youngest son, is a student at the Lowell High School. The daughters are Corinne and Winifred Farpey, students of the Douglass Grammar School.

The funeral services are to be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at St. Mary's Cathedral, where a solemn mass of requiem will be said for the soul of the deceased. The interment will be at Holy Cross Cemetery.

Being a liberal spender, Branin had a large number of friends among the sportsmen and all of last season was frequently seen on the local race-track, where he had varying luck in the book-making ring.

He was counted as a jolly good fellow and had the reputation of being ever ready to assist a fellow-sportsman in a time of need. He was extremely quiet and was popular with his fellow employees in the County Clerk's office.

MADE A LOAN. Several years ago Branin loaned Captain William Roberts of Roberts' Landing, this county, the sum of about $1500. When Captain Roberts went into insolvency recently, Branin held several of his notes. He put the notes into the hands of Attorney Langan for collection. The attorney succeeded, so it is said, in securing about $600, part of which he turned over to Branin, and then the receiver for Captain Roberts declared that Branin was not one of the preferred creditors and demanded that the money be given back.

This, however, Branin refused to do, so suit was brought in this county before Judge Blaworth. The trial was postponed several times because Branin was unable for some reason to secure the attendance of a certain witness. Finally the case was tried without the services of this witness and the decision was expected to-morrow. Branin had been given to understand that the case would go against him. This caused him to become despondent. He declared that he was in the right and he made frequent visits to the receiver's office in an attempt to obtain what he declared to be his due.

Then he began to drink heavily and was frequently seen about the local resorts. Friends endeavored to prevent him from continuing, but their efforts were of no avail. For the past several days Branin has, at times, behaved peculiarly and his act this morning was the culmination of his drinking and business worry.

Deceased was born in this county. He leaves, besides a wife, a mother, Mrs. Jeanne Branin, two sisters, Miss Marile and Grace, and two brothers, John and William. He was a member of Old Orchard Camp, Woodmen of the World. Arrangements for the funeral have not as yet been made.

CAPTAIN GOMEZ ENTERTAINED

HE IS GIVEN A DINNER AT THE ATHLETIC CLUB.

Captain Luis Gomez, of the Chilean training ship General Baquedano, now lying in the harbor of San Francisco, was given a complimentary dinner at the Athletic Club last evening in return for courtesies extended on board his ship. The party which sat at the table with Captain Gomez was composed of Senator G. Russ Lukens, Thomas Rickard, Edward Bray, Lawrence Cadogan, E. Myron Wolf, C. C. Sessions Jr. and Edward Clement.

Prior to sitting down to the table Captain Gomez was introduced to Secretary Metcalf, Senator Frank J. Moffitt and other members of the club. Secretary Metcalf invited the Chilean commander to visit the Mare Island Navy Yard and the Naval Training Station on Yerba Buena Island. Captain Gomez speaks excellent English, with scarcely the trace of an accent, being seemingly familiar with the idioms of our tongue. He was voted by all who met him as a most agreeable gentleman.

prevented, Branin slashed himself again and fell to the floor with the weapon of death still clenched in his hand. He died almost immediately.

The authorities at Haywards were notified and Deputy coroner Geary went to the scene and made an investigation. He will hold an inquest at Haywards this week.

GOLD HUNTER. Before the great flow of fortune-hunters to the Klondike region several years ago, Branin went to Alaska and established a number of claims. Upon his return he brought with him about $75,000 in gold-dust. Part of this wealth he used to build a pretty home for his mother at San Lorenzo. He also invested his money in a racing stable and established a stock farm near his home.

Being a liberal spender, Branin had a large number of friends among the sportsmen and all of last season was frequently seen on the local race-track, where he had varying luck in the book-making ring.

It is suspected also that Whipple has burned two barns, and consequently all barns located within the season's crop are guarded night and day by armed farm hands. It is believed that Whipple is hiding in a cave in Mott Hill.

DECIDING GAME ON OAKLAND
GREEN IS WON BY SAN FRANCISCO.

The deciding game for the championship was played Saturday on the Twenty-third-avenue green by the Oakland and San Francisco Scottish Bowling Clubs. The latter organization on winning by a score of 88 to 55. Each club had won two contests, so Saturday's contest was to decide which club should be declared the champion.

The first team of Oakland led the San Francisco players by three points, the two second teams played a very close game, but the Oakland bowlers again led their opponents by two points. San Francisco's third team however, with J. M. Duncan as skip, beat the Oakland

It will be a contest royal between the king and queen of the American trotters when Major Delmar and Lou Dillon meet during this month on the Memphis track in the second leg of the $5000 gold cup race for amateur drivers. Last year Mr. Billings, driving Lou Dillon, won the first race easily, taking both heats in 2:04.34. No doubt this time will be lowered this year. Major Delmar has already trotted below 2:03, and Lou Dillon, as told last week in the TRIBUNE, has worked the mile in 2:02 and 2:01. Mr. Smathers, owner of Major Delmar, is confident, however, that his horse will win this year and if he can it will not be in straight heats. The eyes of horsemen and the sporting world are directed to this contest between the king and queen of trotters.

DEFEAT THE ALL-STARS IN BENEFIT GAME BY SCORE OF

The Lee-Johnsons showed the local fans how to play ball when they defeated the All-Stars, a picked team from the State League yesterday afternoon at Idora Park by the score of 3 to 2.

In the ninth inning, when the All-Stars had two men on base, the Lee-Johnsons made a triple play which retired the side.

Anton pitched a game that would have done credit to a big leaguer, allowing five scattered hits. Nelson, who caught Anton, deserves credit for the fine showing he made.

Enloepek played a great game at first, stopping a seemingly impossible drive.

Bernhardt distinguished himself at short, making some grandstand stops, and Big Chief Kennedy played his usual fine game at second.

Puttina also pitched a good game and was given gift support.

The game was in the nature of a benefit for Frank J. Cullen, captain, of the Iver-Johnsons, who was seriously injured at Newark on September 15.

The teams lined up as follows:
All-Stars—Callahan, catcher; Perrine pitcher; Peters, first base; Wyams, second base; Kane, third base; Denny, shortstop; Walthours, left-field; McKelren, center-field; Wade, right-field. Iver-Johnsons--Nelson, catcher; Anton, pitcher; Chioupek, first base; Kennedy, second base; Cruz, third base; Barnhardt, shortstop; Croter, left-field. White, center-field; Hyland, right-field. Bluthen umpired the game and his decisions were satisfactory to all.

Ed. P. Baggett, the well-known sporting man, says the Ivers can beat anything on the coast, and is willing to risk any amount on their chances.

BERKELEY SUBURBAN NEWS UNIVERSITY

FOOTBALL MEN SEVERELY CRITICIZED. BERKELEY CHURCH FEDERATION RALLY. IRRIGATING CROPS IS THEME OF BULLETIN. FENCE IS PLACED ABOVE GREEK THEATRE. TRUSTEES AND CITIZENS TO TALK BONDS.

Official Organ of the State University Alumni Accuses a Member of the Team of Dissipating. Date Will Be Set for Half-Million-Dollar Election—Energetic Campaign Planned.

BERKELEY, October 2.—Intense surprise was caused on the University campus this morning through an editorial in the Occident-Magazine, the official organ of the alumni, in which Gus Carter Keane accuses three football men of gross violations of the training rules. For the present the names of the men who are said to be guilty of the breach of discipline are being withheld but Carter declares that he will publish the names of any football candidates violating the rules in the future.

Associated with Keane in the editorial of the Occident-Magazine is Leo D. Bishop, assistant manager of the football team of the University.

The following is the full text of the editorial that is creating the commotion: "Despite all the talk about enforcing training rules this year and restricting men who break them, we see certain members of the football squad acting as though no such things as rules existed. Three football men, at least one of whom it is thought will be on the team, were seen one night last week at Zinkand's Cafe, where, however, they took only soft drinks. They left and were found to have gone to the Inverness, a resort of ill repute, at which place they began drinking intoxicants. Their stay there was not long for they soon went to Jack Morgan's saloon, a hang-out of the worst type of the half-world. Here these campus heroes specialized on beer, treating women who were ready enough to be companions. This is a case of training rules broken with a vengeance.

"The man who takes it upon himself to defend the name of California upon the gridiron but has not enough character or honor to live up to the requirements put upon him should get out of the line of light. If you can't keep training rules get off the football field before you are put off. College has no use for the man who can't keep training rules. You are in the way and your weakness of character may carry you degradation to others who are open to temptation. Think of the question—shall I uphold my university's honor and keep training rules, or shall I forego this privilege to satisfy the appetite of beastliness? The man who chooses the alternative we don't want around.

"Still, for these men, it is yet early in the season and they should be given a chance to live down the other night. But if anyone now trying out for the Varsity eleven should be seen breaking training rules again, the Occident-Magazine hopes to be able to publish his name, while regretting what it considers a duty."

WOODMEN WILL GATHER AT SAN LEANDRO TO CONFER DEGREES. GOLDEN GATE, October 2.—The members of the local Pit Club assembled Saturday evening at the home of Miss Eda Bauer on Fifty-fourth street and spent a most enjoyable evening.

FRUITVALE, October 2.—Republicans of Fruitvale and vicinity have arranged for a rally of their forces to take place in Elkman's Hall next Thursday evening. It is understood that the meeting will be an interesting and enthusiastic one. As it is the first demonstration of its kind here for the purpose of furthering the candidacy of Roosevelt and Fairbanks in the coming campaign, it has been requested by the leaders that all Republicans be present.

It is understood that similar meetings will be held at regular intervals during the next month, and the present enthusiasm displayed by the partisans of the party in this vicinity is very encouraging to its movement.

The following are the officials of the Campaign Club: H. Marwedel, president; E. Lee, secretary.

ST. LOUIS VISITORS. Quite a number of Fruitvale people have visited the World's fair at St. Louis this summer. Among those now at the fair from this vicinity are Mrs. Tom Howatt, Miss Ethel and Mrs. Scott Howatt. They will not return to their homes until the first part of November.

FOUND THE MAN—GOT THE MONEY. Miss Irene Harris, a bright young miss of about 12 years, after persistent effort last Saturday night, found the man who carried five dollars of Kahn's Kandy money and received the reward. Miss Harris, who resides at 388 Tenth street, found the man walking on Washington street between Tenth and Eleventh street, at 9:30.

FALLING HAIR STOPPED. Baldness cured by Destroying the Parasitic Germ That Causes It. Baldness follows falling hair, falling hair follows dandruff, and dandruff is the result of a germ disease in the scalp to the root of the hair where it stops the vitality of the hair. To destroy that germ is to prevent as well as cure dandruff, falling hair, and, lastly, baldness. There is only one preparation known to do that, Newbro's Hairdressing. It is entirely new, scientific, and entirely successful. It has been tried by thousands of people and it can't be otherwise, because it utterly destroys the dandruff germ. You destroy the cause, you remove the effect. Sold by leading druggists. Send for the sample to Newbro's, The Herpelde Co., Detroit, Mich. Bowman & Co., Special Agents.

EMERYVILLE, October 2.—Much complaint has been made of late by residents of this place regarding the nuisance caused by people allowing their horses and cattle to roam at large upon the streets.

There is an ordinance prohibiting this, but it has been abused by many and the officers have determined to enforce it hereafter at any cost.

Marshal Cuy arrested J. D. Donelson of San Pablo avenue recently for breaking the ordinance and when arraigned before Judge Coburn, the offender pleaded guilty and judgment was postponed.

The ordinance not only prohibits cattle or horses running loose upon the public streets, but forbids that they be staked out to graze, either upon the thoroughfares or upon private land, unless permission is granted by the owner of the property.

IT IS SUCCESS. During the summer months the oil placed upon one side of San Pablo avenue, between Forty-fifth street and Park avenue, as an experiment, has proved eminently satisfactory and the annoyance in the matter of dust is pronounced.

It remains to be seen how the oil will stand the rain. During the recent heavy rainfall there were indications that it might prove disagreeable, inasmuch as the oil has a habit of caking and sticking to the wheels of vehicles in a decidedly unpleasant manner.

It is thought, however, that of the two evils, the dust is the greater, and the majority of the people will be willing to put up with the mud in order to be rid of the dust.

TRUSTEES TONIGHT. The meeting of the Board of Town Trustees tonight will probably be an important one, owing to the fact that there was no session last week, and considerable business has accumulated during the two weeks which will come up for consideration.

ROLLING STREET. Forty-first street is being rolled, and when the work is finished will be one of the best thoroughfares in the town.

CLUB ORGANIZED. The First Ward Improvement Club has elected permanent organization and the following officers have been elected: President, A. D. Fryal; vice-president, M. P. Manning; secretary, A. J. Roberts. The meetings of the club will be held every Thursday evening at a place at 404 Channing street, corner of Fifth.

HAYWARDS, October 2.—Feasting and dancing were the chief features of the third annual grand ball given under the auspices of the ladies of the U. P. E. C., in the Native Sons' Hall last Saturday evening. All who were present at the delightful affair do not hesitate to give the society credit for affording them an evening of joy and pleasure.

The decorations were unique and attractive and speak well for the taste of those who prepared them. American flags intertwined with the colors of the organization draped the walls, while festoons of fern and flowers were suspended throughout the apartment. Victor's Orchestra furnished the music, the musicians being seated behind a screen of foliage.

The merry couples danced until a late hour in the evening, when the grand march was formed and the dancers enjoyed a bountiful banquet.

MUSICIANS ENTERTAINED. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse H. Woods entertained their music class of Miss Merrill in their city at their home last Friday evening, and those present report a very enjoyable time. As most of the guests are musicians of more than ordinary ability, some very pleasing selections were rendered.

Late in the evening light refreshments were served, after which the guests departed.

PLEASANT GATHERING. A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. Allen were entertained at their home last Friday evening. The guests enjoyed themselves to the utmost, spending the major portion of their time in playing games and chatting over old times. Refreshments were served.

HE MARRIES MANY, BUT REFUSES MORE
NEW YORK, October 2.—With an estimated record of nearly fifteen thousand marriages, the fifty-first anniversary of the Church of the Transfiguration, known far and wide as "the Little Church Around the Corner" has been celebrated. Special services were held and large congregations were in attendance, including many theatrical persons, among whom the church is particularly popular.

Speaking of the many marriages celebrated in the church, the rector, Dr. Houghton, declared that he turned away many more couples than he married, in fact those whom he refuses average fifty couples a month, including divorced persons and young persons who are unable to swear that their parents' consent has been obtained.

SECRETARY HAY SPEAKS TO PEACE CONGRESS. Tells of the Splendid Work Accomplished by McKinley and Roosevelt.

BOSTON, Oct. 3.—The Tremont Temple this afternoon was jammed with many turned away unable to gain admission. Edwin D. Brad, chairman of the Committee on Organization of the peace congress, presided and introduced Secretary Hay who spoke as follows:

I esteem it a great honor and privilege to be allowed to extend to you the welcome of the Government and the people of the United States of America on this memorable and auspicious occasion. No time could be more fitting for this gathering of a parliament of peace than today when at the other end of the world the thunder of a destructive and sanguinary war is deafening the nations, while here we are preparing to settle the question of a vast transfer of power by a peaceful and orderly procedure. I do not mean to say that the peace congress is a panacea for all the ills of the world. It is not. It is a step towards the solution of the problem of peace. It is a step towards the solution of the problem of peace. It is a step towards the solution of the problem of peace.
